Newsletter, November 2025

Dear partners, stakeholders, and friends,

Welcome to the fourth edition of the #GAP newsletter! This project marks a significant step toward empowering the Vocational Training Centers' processes and competences targeting the job insertion of vulnerable people.

In this and future issues, we'll keep you informed about our progress, milestones, and upcoming activities.

Stay tuned and engaged!

What we have been doing...

In the five participating countries, the #GAP team has been working to formalize methods, resources, and best practices. Our work starting from mapping the different actions and activities toward the successful insertion of the trainees consists of available tools, techniques and guidelines for each of the 6 steps pathway, we have put together:

We met, but this time in Greece

Our host, www.mesogeia.gr, invited us to spend two days in Thessaloniki on November 4 & 5, just one month before Christmas.

Most importantly, we truly enjoyed each other's company even though we had met and worked together extensively.

P.S. Our #GAP team's next meeting is scheduled for February 16 and 17, 2026, in Belgium and our host will be www.aid-com.be. It will be a big event, so stay tuned. Invites will be shared with all of you!!!

Forthcoming ...

The e-learning, which is now under development, will very soon be at your disposal with 3 very creative seminars, in English, French, Italian, Romanian, Bulgarian and Greek languages, so be sure to check back often!
